SUMMARY

What do you believe are your spiritual gifts / professional skills? What is the area of your greatest passion?

What do you desire to get mostly out of your journey in college? What are your spiritual or personal goals we may assist you with?

Reign University (formerly JSPV Bible College & Training Institute) does not discriminate against race, ethnicity, or background. We believe in unity in diversity and welcome all generations, cultures and ethnicities. We walk in harmony with each other and promote healthy relationships. Our devotion is to God first and will uphold the integrity of His name and His character. At all times, we walk in pride of our liberty in the faith and encourage every believer to embrace those who have not found this great faith. We encourage participation in prayer/praise services each day as we prepare to learn and practice what is taught. Our instructors are focused on providing you with the education, training and guidance that is imperative to your spiritual growth and maturity. Our staff members are geared toward making your career experience a pleasurable one.

Honor Conduct Code: Students make a commitment not to lie, cheat, or steal where they represent themselves as students in order to gain the trust of others. Because they have made this commitment, students are trusted by peers, faculty members, administrators, and community residents alike. Students conduct themselves with integrity and are presumed honorable until proven otherwise. Students are accountable to this Honor system whereas each one will uphold the integrity of the system and integrity of our belief in Christ like living standards. Failure to comply with these general guidelines may be grounds for personal counsel with the college leadership or in the worse cases, cause for disciplinary action to include formal dismissal.
