We the People to Save the Republic is a committee of American Citizens to whom make up the State of South Dakota.

We, the People, Hereby Agree, to Faithfully, and Religiously Restore the Constitutional Republic of the United States, the State of South Dakota, the County's of South Dakota, allowing the American People to Put Back Together their Republic of Free Persons.

Our cause began as part of the America First Movement, that first began with the birth of the Tea Party Movement more than a decade ago leading to the fight to help promote better initiatives, resolutions, and candidates in South Dakota, and we have created this movement to gain support, and engineer a greater cause for alarm to help engage with the public today.

All Public Initiatives and Resolutions of which are Supported by We the People Save the Republic must abide by, and adhere to the Fourteen Articles of Freedom, of which Shall Uphold, and Protect the Rights of the State, and of the People in a respectful civil union of people.

We Are a Group of People to whom We Believe that We Stand United Under God, to which we Hold the Ultimate Authority over our Government.

HOUSE OF GOD

The People Who Explored, and Laid Down the Foundation, Our Culture, Form of Governmental Organization, and Economical Foundation Derived from a Group of People from Northern Europe.

Beginning in the 1730's, descendents of Irish-Scots, and German Immigrants traveled south along the Great Wagon Road, of which stretched from Pennsylvania extending into Virginia, and through the Shenandoah Valley, where these settlers further utilized the Great Indian Trading Pathway that begun in Petersburg, Virginia, and led into the Piedmont area of North Carolina, present day Mecklenburg County.

Until then, early English settlements were all along the coastal plains, but this new group of settlers began to come down from the north, to escape some of the tighter controls of Great Britain, to colonize the Piedmont Region, nestled along the eastern edges of the Appalachian Mountain range.

The Scot-Irish, or Ulster Scots, were descendants of Scots who had moved to Northern Ireland. They had prospered in Ireland until changes in English policies led many to migrate to America, where most settled in Pennsylvania. They began to arrive in North Carolina in the 1730s, leaving Pennsylvania after crops were harvested in the fall and arriving in the Piedmont in time to plant winter crops and seedlings that they brought with them.

These settlers would soon be conjoined by German-Lutheran Settlers, to whom would migrate into the Piedmont Region for many of the same reasons the Ulster-Scots did years earlier, to escape religious persecution during the Protestant Revolution, of whom were joined also by the Moravians of Germany, when fifteen Moravian Brethren arrived after walking from Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, of whom together would form a community of which the Moravians constructed more than 75 buildings during the first 20 years of the settlement's existence.

All this was taking place between 1763-1783, during the American Revolutionary Period, to which many of these early American Migrants began standing up to Great Britain, and the King, of which this colony residing in Mecklenburg County (N.C) are thought of, as to adopting the first Declaration, to which is thought of, as being known as the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, to which has been questioned, but may have been better known as the Mecklenburg Resolves.

If this is true, this is first hand evidence of the Ulster-Scots and German Lutherans of being the first to swear their allegiance to the House of God, and bestow in themselves, a renowned faith in their religion, by denouncing the British Monarchy.

The Organization of the American People Become the United State's.

On May 31, 1775, in the Charlotte, Winston-Salem area of the Piedmont Region, these early Americans stood up, and denounced the British throne, to which they adopted their Declaration of Independence, to which became legally known as the Mecklenburg Resolves.

At a meeting in Charlotte organized by Thomas Polk, they helped to fire a spirit of independence, these resolutions became a bold set of Anti-British resolutions, to which began to spread all throughout the Northeastern Territory all throughout the colonies.

On March 31, 1775, this group of Ulster-Scots, German Lutherans, and the Moravians, under the direction of Thomas Polk, organized a political committee of elders, to which would begin to discuss, draft, and write a list of Resolutions, to which would become the Mecklenburg County Declaration of Independence.

These resolutions became a very radical set of demands, to which denied the authority of Parliament over the colonies and investing that power in the Provincial Congress, of which was meeting that very week in New Bern. In the absence of an operational new government, the resolutions set up some basic tenets, to which anyone who received or exercised a commission from the Crown was deemed an “enemy to his country” and subject to arrest. The county’s militia companies were ordered to arm themselves and maintain vigilance.

The Mecklenburg Resolves were published in full in the North Carolina Gazette of June 16, 1775, and received wide circulation. Royal Governor Josiah Martin wrote on June 30 that the resolution “surpasses all the horrid and treasonable publications that the inflammatory spirits of this Continent have yet produced.” Richard Cogdell wrote that the resolutions “exceed all other committees, or the Congress itself.” Samuel Johnston on June 27 wrote that “Tom Polk, too, is raising a very pretty spirit in the back country and that “he has gone a little farther than I would have chosen to have gone, but perhaps no farther than is necessary.”

Thanks to this group of people in the Piedmont Region of North Carolina, many other Americans began to take note, and used the same process, and organization to stand up, and declare their demands, and resolutions to which eventually lead to July 4, 1776, whereas members of the Continental Congress finally drafted, and adopted the Declaration of National Independence.

According to Wikipedia, The Mecklenburg County Regiment was authorized on May 31, 1775 by the Province of North Carolina Congress. From November 7, 1779 until the 3rd Quarter of 1780, it was called the 1st Mecklenburg County Regiment when a 2nd Mecklenburg County Regiment existed. The 1st Mecklenburg County regiment was engaged in 39 known battles and skirmishes against the British during the American Revolution in North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia between 1776 and 1781. It was active until the end of the war.

While the story of the Ulster-Scots and the German Lutherans are widely known, it's the story of the Moravians until now that is widely told, of which traced their roots to Jan Hus, martyred in 1415, 100 years before Martin Luther began the Protestant Reformation.

The Moravians' denomination was almost wiped out during the religious wars of the 1600s.

After their rebirth under Zinzendorf's leadership, they became the first Protestant missionaries. In the 1730s Moravian societies were established in Holland, England and Denmark, as well as such far away places as Greenland, Surinam, Zanzibar and in the American colonies. Their first mission in the British Colonies was in Savannah, but they eventually traveled north to Pennsylvania where the church had bought two tracts of land.

They founded Nazareth and Bethlehem and as those towns prospered, the Brethren wanted to expand in the colonies, eventually purchasing almost 100,000 acres owned by Lord Granville along the banks of Muddy Creek in Piedmont North Carolina. The land on which we are now encamped seems to me to have been reserved by the Lord for the Brethren.

August Gottlieb Spangenberg. January 8, 1753.

Historically speaking, it would be these Group of Men and Women, of whom have ties to Judah, and the 10 Lost Tribes of Israel, to whom established Ulster in Northern Ireland, to who was a part of the United Kingdom which was England and Scotland. Many of these Ulsters can trace their lineage to the remnants to the Tribe of Judah, and of the Clan of Zarah, or the House of Zarah, to whom Zarah was the twin brother to Pharez.

This seemingly biblical prophecy is coming true, as we find in 1 Chronicles 17:1-17, proclaims that God made a promise to the Tribe of Ephraim, that he will plant their seed in a new land.

Beginning in 900 A.D, the Viking of whose ancestry can be traced to the Tribe of Dan - the people of Ireland, Denmark, Scotland, Germany, Sweden, Poland, the Baltic States began coming to the North American Continent, then after Christopher Columbus discovered America in 1492, it began a movement led by a Tribal People coming from England, Ireland, France, Germany, Spain. It is believed that many members of the House of Zarah, eventually migrated to Northern England, residing in Scotland, and later migrating to Northern Ireland, during the Protestant Revolution, to form, and establish the Colony of Ulster.

You literally see the Israelite Tribes, quickly uniting, in Western Europe, to which, it would be this Lineage of People, to whom would come to the North American Continent, staking their ties to the land, settling the land, and establishing the early foundations to what became the United States of America.

If this is all true, then the United States has become New Zion, the promised land given to the Tribe of Ephraim, as stated in 1 Chronicles 17:1-17, of whom traces their lineage to Jacobs 11th son, Joseph, who was sold into slavery, bondage in Egypt, and it became God's instructions to the Tribe of Ephraim, was that they would become New Zion, to which would work to watchover, protect, and defend the 10 Lost Tribes of Israel, while the 2 Houses of Judah come back together again, recreating the Nation of Israel.

America today, has become God's New Covenant made to the Israelites, to which they will all one day be united, and to whom the United States of America has stood strong on it's Christian principles in large part, grounded on morality, and religious liberty, and has become a country, to which has become the Preservation, the Protector, and Defender of the Nation of Israel.

Each of the 50 State's can trace their lineage at some point to these same, iconic people, to whom God locked them out of the City of David, allowing for a Foreign Nation to destroy their Jewish Temple, to which today the Edomites, Ishmaelites, Palistinans, have built their shrines, the Muslim Mosque today sits on the very spot of the former Temple, and the Dome of the Rock sits on the higher portion of Mt. Zion, the place of the Roman Fort Antonia, and while the City of David sits beneath a pile of earth, rubble, and destruction.

Is it a wonder why the United States has remained today, a culture of free, independent, and sovereign people, heavily grounded in their beliefs, morality, enabling them to remain free of Religious persecution? Look at what is occurring today.

We, Today, Must Adopt a New Declaration with the Intent to Create a List of Resolves.

This New Declaration must present to the Government of the United States, that We the People are Choosing to Restore the Original Republic as Free, Independent, Sovereign States, to Whom Promise to Protect, Preserve, and Defend the United States Constitution.

The Following is Our Plan to which represents the pathway back to our Original Documents.

We the People of the Republic of the United States of America

The Mission to Save the Republic Must Be Made Up of as Many Republic's, Commonwealth's, Plantation Organizations, Estates, Territories as possible, of which all these organizations make up the Confederation of Member-States of America. In spite of the movement of Neocon-Republicans and Leftest-Marxist Democrats wishing to steer America down a dangerous, and sinister pathway, towards a more regulated, controlling Federalized Corporate America, the People making up these Free, Independent, and Sovereign Territorial Organizations must remain strong, prudent, and fiscally responsible to one and another, beholden to their Religious Liberties, Morality, and Convictions.

The People of the Republic for the United States of America must remain strong, and must remain United, and must remain diligent in both nature, and in promise, and like our ancestors, who became our founders, must remain steadfast, Martyrs for a Just, and Moral Society, to which will guide the Republic, to which it will stand on, on it's free soil, and liberty for all.

Therefore, we as Free Americans, born on the North American Continent, must Adopt Resolutions to Stand Together to Disband, and Dissolve the United States Land Company, to which has Established the Incorporated Federal States of America.

Below, is a Declaration, made by, and of the American Citizens of the Republic to Resolve the Conflicting Interests between the Government of the United States of America, and the Confederacy of Republics, Commonwealths, Plantations, Estates, and Territories of whom had agreed to, in 1777, to act as a Confederacy of Member-States, to Govern over the land itself.

We the People of the Republic of Free and the Independent Republics, Commonwealths, Plantations, Estates, and Territories upon the Free Soil commonly referred to as the United States for America, hereby, and agree to adopt this Declaration of Independence, thus Declaring that they, beginning on this, the 7th Day of December, in the year of Our Lord, Two-Thousand, and Twenty-Three to be Free People Living Upon the land.

In the course of events over the previous human events, it becomes apparent, to which a free people must adopt resolves to which they must provide a list of grievances, to which lead them to dissolve the political bands to which had connected them with another, and to assume upon the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Law of Nature and Nature's God entitle them, in respect to, they must renew, and take a new vow in respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes to which impel them to separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--

That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, --That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security.--Such has been the patient sufferance of these Confederated States, Republics, Commonwealths, Plantations, Territories, Estates; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government. The history of the present President of the United States of America is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid world.

We the the People of these United States for America, hereby adopt these Resolves:

He has misguided, and directed the Government of the United States to manipulate, and abuse its powers, to interfere with, and confuse the laws of the United States to invade upon the privacy of the Citizens of the beloved State Republics, Commonwealths, and Plantations.

He has misdirected, and guided the federal courts, and military tribunals by falsely imprisoning, and jailing Americans to which have the right to stand on their own rights and beliefs, in relation to self governing themselves throughout the fifty, United States of America.

He has forbidden the Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his Assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public Records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has colluded with, and directed the many legislatures bodies of the several states, to become uncomfortable, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has abdicated the Government in favor of a military despotism which they have placed around themselves, but cannot control, and have abandoned the duty of shielding the citizen with their protection; have thrown upon the people of the Republics, Commonwealths, Plantations, Territories, and Estates the horrors and ravages of war, instead of attempting to preserve the peace, and have voted men and money for the war waged by Global Powers for the destruction of our constitutional rights.

He has permitted our people to be driven in exile from their homes, to which have subjected our property to confiscation and our persons to confinement in the penitentiary as felons, because we may choose to take part in a cause for civil liberty and constitutional government against a sectional majority waging war against the people and institutions of fifty independent States of the old Federal Union, and have done all these things deliberately against the warnings and vetoes of the Governors and the solemn remonstrances of the minority in the Senate and House of Representatives.

In addition to the causes for complaint, set forth by the conventions of the several State Republics, Commonwealths, Plantations, Territories, and Estates, in resolutions adopted by the several States of the Confederacy of Members, against the sectional parties now in power in Washington D.C., headed by Joe Biden, he has, in the face of resolutions passed by these conventions pledging the several states, to resist to the last extremity any attempt on the part of such power to coerce any State that had separated themselves from the Government of the United States of America, has now proclaimed to the world that war should be waged against such States until they should be compelled to submit to their rule, and large forces to accomplish this have by this same power been called out, and are now being marshaled to carry out this inhuman design; and to longer submit to such rule, or remain in the old Union of the United States, would be disgraceful and ruinous to the several Republics, Commonwealths, Plantations, Territories, and of the Estates residing on the free soil.

He has refused for a long time, after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the Legislative powers, incapable of Annihilation, have returned to the People at large for their exercise; the State remaining in the meantime exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

He has neglected his constitutional duties by allowing for a mass migration of foreign persons to come through the borders of states, with the goal of diluting the membership of Natural Born Citizens, with the design of, allowing a foreign-born person to become elected into the U.S Senate, U.S House, and numerous Legislatures of the numerous States, with the end goal of usurping power from the people, to be held by the national government, to which is now obligated to, and held hostage of foreign powers.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, Standing Armies without consent of the Legislatures. Recent developments in Federal affairs has made it evident that the power of the Federal Government is sought to be made a weapon with which to strike down the interests and property of the people of several states, instead of permitting it to be, as was intended, our shield against outrage and aggression.

He, as President has allowed for, and directed the Federal Government to coerce the U.S Senate, United States of Representatives, and the several Legislators to manipulate, and allow for foreign interference, allowing foreign actors, countries, companies to decide our elections.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the United States of America, by means of conventions of our General State Republics, Commonwealths, Plantations, Territories, Estates, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the Name, and by Authority of the good People of these United States of America, solemnly publish and declare, That these United States are, and of Right ought to be Free and Independent States; that they are Absolved from all Allegiance to the Government of the United States of America, and that all political connection between them and the Government of the United States of America, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do. And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor, to Renew Our Vows, Pledges, and Convictions to Re-Establish these United States, with the Goal to Establish a National Government to which will faithfully, and objectively, remain loyal to, and diligent, to the laws of the States, and to their United States Constitution.

Furthermore, We, therefore, do not wish to dissolve the Confederacy of Member States. The goal of dissolving the political bands of, and separate from the Government of the United States of America, is to re-establish, an rebuild a new, national government of the United States, to whom will restrict itself to the passages provided by Article 1, Section 8, Clauses 1-18 of the United States Constitution.

Below, the Underline, State Republics, Commonwealths, Plantations, Territories, and Estates making up the Confederacy of Member-States, hereby agree to Adopt this Declaration, to which have listed and formatted a uniformed list of Resolves to which we agree to disband, and separate from the Government of the United States, with the goal of Uniting together under a new cause, to reestablish, and Rebuild our Republic, of the United States of America.

We Patriots are creating an excellent plan to Restore the Republic of Free States, where the People control the United States Government. “WE” are the 10 Lost Tribes of Israel, many of us are all have common ancestors to the 12 Germanic Tribes that once called the Country of Pomerania home – a country so massive, that today, includes parts of, or all of Mecklenburg (Germany), Denmark, Austria, Hungary, Poland, the Baltic States, Sweden, Norway, all with strong connections to Germany itself..

We are a culture of people born of Pommerian Farmers of who came to the United States between 1830 and 1920 settling in Dakota Territory, while under our temporary government, formed Counties, to which under them, we formed Homesteads, Farm-steads, townships, and other colonies of people, whereas our religious protestant faith, led to forming the ideal core values of the Republican Party (1848), whereas by 1889, the States of South Dakota, North Dakota, Wyoming, and Montana were formed..

If you track America’s Ancestry, you will find that much of the Northern States stretching from Wisconsin in the east, to as far as Oregon and Washington in the far west all share this common ancestry and you will discover the main reasons why these “States” seemingly will unite together, establishing a coalition, a “Confederacy of Member-States” with the one goal of Restoring the Republic to Save America.

You owe your allegiance to a Group of People called the Ulster Scots – who rose up during the Revolutionary War, proclaiming their Sovereignty, standing up against the King of England, whereas they further, stood up again during the War of 1812, and it was one of them, Francis Key, who written the words to the Star Spangled Banner, becoming our “National Anthem” in the early 1930’s.

Our Plan to Restore the Republic, of Free, Independent, and Sovereign States:

- It starts with organizing under the Counties by holding Precinct Committees;
- It then goes to a convention where we can choose, and pick our At Large Representatives – Governor, Lt. Governor, Attorney General, Secretary of State, State Auditor, Treasurer, Land Commissioner, U.S Senator, and “our” Elector for the President and Vice President;
- Draw up a Resolution to Hold a “Special Election” unless the next General Election is within 30 days of choosing those Persons;
- By means of the Precinct Strategy, “WE” will put our people in “Official Offices” of which govern over the “state government” and of which our “Rightful Choice for President” will govern over the Federal Government in our “Image”.
